

Super 8 by Wyndham
Sioux City/Morningside
Area

4307 Stone Ave.

Sioux City, IA 51106

712-522-1792

Iowa Assembly of Surgical Technologists
P.O. Box 1724
Des Moines, IA 50305-1724

Iowa Assembly of Surgical
Technologists

2018 Fall Business Meeting &
Workshop

Saturday October 13th 2018

Western Iowa Tech Community
College

4647 Stone Ave., Room W108,
East Entrance, Parking Lot #3

Sioux City, Iowa 51106

Schedule for the Workshop

730-750 Registration

750-755 Welcome and Announcements

800-850 Michael Sells, RN, CST,
-Certification Legislation

900-950 – Renee Nemitz, RN, FAST, CST
– AST Medical Mission, Making an
Impact on the Children of Ecuador

1000-1050 – Dr. Volz
– Robotic Colon Surgery

1100-1150 – Lunch/Business Meeting

1200-1250 – Anita Hadley, MNA, CRNA
– Anesthesia Medications 101

1300-1350 – Michael Sells, RN, CST
- Panel Discussion

1400-1450 – Dr. David Rettedal
– Diabetic Ankle Fractures

1500-1550 – Heidi Dunson, RN
- Clinical Ladder

1600-1610 – Closing and CEUs

Please detach this portion and return
with payment.

Contact Information

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State ____ ZIP _____

Email _____

NBSTSA Cert. Number _____

AST Membership Number _____

Credentials

Circle those that apply

CST CST/CSFA LPN RN

Other _____

Conference Fee

AST Member $45

Non Member $55

Student $10

*Make checks payable to "IASA"

Contact Us

Iowa Assembly of Surgical
Technologists
P.O. Box 1724
Des Moines, IA 50305-1724

Ia.ast.org

Contact Information

Michael Sells
319-651-4165
Michael.sells@kirkwood.edu

Workshop Objectives

- 1) Understand the process of certification legislation at the state level.
- 2) Recognize the importance of medical missions.
- 3) Identify instrumentation for robotic surgery.
- 4) Understand the pathophysiology of ankle procedures as it relates to diabetes.
- 5) Identify the process of initiating a surgical technology clinical ladder program.